WESTERN OKLAHOMA STATE COLLEGE
RADIOLOGIC TECHNOLOGY PROGRAM

Mission Statement:
The Mission of the Department of Radiologic Sciences is to provide students with both the general and technical education to competently and safely perform radiologic procedures, to prepare qualified imaging technologists who will ethically respond to the needs of patients with technical competence and compassion, and to become a vital member of the health care team in the increasing global society.

Goal: Students will demonstrate entry-level proficiency.
Student Learning Outcomes: Students will demonstrate radiation protection.
Students will apply appropriate positioning skills.
Students will select appropriate exposure factors.

Goal: Students will develop and grow professionally.
Student Learning Outcomes: Students will employ the professional ethics of a radiographer.
Students will understand the importance of professional organizations.

Goal: Students will use critical thinking and problem solving skills.
Student Learning Outcomes: Students will adjust routine imaging parameters for trauma patients.
Students will demonstrate problem solving and critical thinking skills.
Students will demonstrate knowledge of proper image evaluation.

Goal: Students will communicate effectively.
Student Learning Outcomes: Students will demonstrate oral communication skills in the classroom settings.
Students will communicate effectively in the clinical setting.

Goal: Graduates will perform as entry-level technologists.
Student Learning Outcomes: Students will be employed in radiology within 12 months post-graduation.
Students will complete the program.
Employers will be satisfied with the student’s education.
Graduates will pass ARRT registry exam on 1st attempt.
Graduates will be satisfied with their educational experience.