

WOSC and Western Equipment Partnership

LtoR: Chrystal Overton, WOSC Vice President of Academic Affairs, Steve Allison, Western Equipment, Allison Garrett, Chancellor of the Oklahoma State System of Higher Education, Doyle Jenks, WOSC Director of Physical Plant, Dr. Chad Wiginton, WOSC President

WOSC is extremely grateful for the longstanding relationship with Western Equipment. What started out as a family-owned business in 1916 has grown into a multi-location equipment dealership, with 21 locations in Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico and a service area that spans much of the southwest. Western Equipment has a rich history in the business of agricultural, residential, and commercial equipment, specializing in all types of equipment parts, sales, and service.

Western Equipment provides WOSC with valuable resources that assist in providing quality experiences to students in the classroom as well as in extracurricular activities. The organization annually provides scholarships for the agriculture program and assists physical plant and athletics with equipment and consultation necessary to maintain a well-groomed campus and functional athletic facilities.

Western Equipment values hands on training and regularly employs WOSC students in a variety of capacities. The two partners not only share the name Western along with the signature green and yellow colors, but also a deep desire to provide opportunities for future leaders in the agriculture industry. Thank you Western Equipment

Workforce Summit & Career Fair

LtoR: Morgan Johns and Kelli Rosale, Jackson County Memorial Hospital, Nicole Keenum, Rexco, Emily Smith, Edward Jones, Greg Marty, Aviation Mechanic/Altus Air Force Base, and Lt. Col. Hoy Leong, Altus Air Force Base.

Western hosted a Workforce Summit and Career Fair on campus Wednesday, March 23. This event was geared for high school or college students along with any adults that had an interest to hear about local opportunities. Those who completed all break sessions received a micro-credential certificate for Career Readiness.

The event began with an employee panel of various representatives in the community discussing qualities they look for in employees. The panel included Lt. Col. Hoy Leong, Altus Air Force Base, Greg Marty, Aviation Mechanic/Altus Air Force Base, Emily Smith, Edward Jones, Nicole Keenum, Rexco, Kelli Rosalez and Morgan Johns, Jackson County Memorial Hospital.

The attendees then completed three breakout sessions

Nicole Keenum, Rexco Drug

diving deeper into preparation for future employment. Those included Strategies for Successful Interviews, Resume Writing Skills, and Career Prep: Planning for your Future. The day wrapped up with a career fair with many great businesses from the community in attendance. Thank you to all who helped make this event a success!
