

We Are Western: Thibault Benabid

Born in France, Thibault Benabid never anticipated ending up in Altus, Oklahoma. As he grew up, he quickly realized he wanted a future playing basketball, and his athletic career led him to the men's basketball team at Western Oklahoma State College.

"My dad was a professional basketball player in France, and my grandfather was a professional coach," Thibault said. "I played basketball at a private school in Florida, and my coach there helped me find a spot on the Western team."

Thibault hopes to continue playing basketball at a four-year university.

"I don't know where I am going next, but I hope to continue playing," Thibault said. "I've enjoyed my time at Western, and am going to miss the intramurals, student activities, and Pioneer Point. Those things have just made Western fun!"

Cheerleaders Make SWOSU & Cameron Teams

Two of Western's cheerleaders have been named members of new teams for the upcoming year. Darcy George made the Cameron University cheer team, and Meaghan Dorn made the Southwestern Oklahoma State University pom team.

Western's athletics programs continue to have success thanks to athletes like Meaghan and Darcy, along with coaches that help them to be the best they can possibly be.
